Allopathic Doctors Have Killed More People Than TEN Holocausts

It's a fact: According to the World Health Organization, doctors around the world have killed more than 60 million people over the last 20 years. Not all of them were on purpose, of course, but many were caused by doctors' overall ignorance about health, brainwashing by pharmaceutical companies and a stubborn unwillingness (tied with arrogance) to learn about the true causes of health and wellness.

Instead, they mostly just push prescription drugs, chemotherapy, surgery and vaccine injury denialism, often while berating their patients for daring the learn anything on their own.

Here are some of my recent social posts about doctors and the threat they pose to society.

Note that you'll get the best medical information from AI today, and you can use our AI engine for free at BrightU.AI - where you'll also find a "wellness coach" on the home page.

Doctors represent the only profession that kills its own customers and then arrogantly berates non-customers for refusing to use its harmful services.

What conventional doctors SHOULD be asking: What did we do that caused a collapse of public trust? Why are patients increasingly seeking alternatives to vaccines and pharmaceuticals?

What conventional doctors are ACTUALLY asking: How can we censor and silence our patients? How do we expand monopoly power over medicine? How can we shove more high-profit jabs and pharmaceuticals down the throats of our patients? How can we harm more children and turn them into repeat profit generators?

Conventional doctors are utterly isolated from reality, and they have no self-reflection capability whatsoever. They still don't know why most of the public sees them as child mutilators, murderers and con artists.

Until doctors are humbled, they will never change. And so far, they only prove they are incapable of humility (or humanity).

According to a rigorous scientific study published in a peer-reviewed journal (2017:234:13-17 Stud Health Technol Inform) doctors kill as many as 251,000 Americans every year just in the U.S. medical system. This is equivalent to a jumbo jet full of hundreds of passengers crashing and killing every single passenger EVERY DAY.

Globally, according to the World Health Organization's "Global Patient Safety Report 2024," doctors kill more than three million patients every year. From the report:

"...nearly one in ten patients is harmed in health care, translating into over three million deaths globally each year. More than half of this harm is preventable. This shocking statistic must serve as a call to action for systemic change."

Got that? ONE IN TEN patients is harmed at the hands of their doctor, with millions killed each year.

This means that over the last twenty years, projecting these same numbers would mean that doctors have killed more human beings than the total number of victims in TEN HOLOCAUSTS.

No profession routinely kills more people than the allopathic medical profession. Yet they loudly proclaim, "Trust the science!" and absurdly declare "We practice evidence-based medicine!"

Yet the evidence proves their system is a failed one that only produces mass suffering and death, not health. Vaccines don't prevent transmission of disease. Chemotherapy doesn't reverse cancer. Cholesterol drugs don't save lives. Prescription pharmaceuticals do not resolve root causes of anything. The entire facade of allopathic medicine is a fraud, hiding behind marketing smoke and mirrors, with lucrative kickbacks to the dishonest doctors who keep pimping the failed treatments for profit, all while condemning those who dare to question their "religion" of pharmaceuticalism.

These statistics bear out the only rational realization: The more you want to NOT DIE, the more aggressively you should reject everything a doctor tells you, as they are purveyors of mass death at a truly Holocaust level (times ten).

If any other profession inflicted such widespread death and destruction across America, it would be outlawed and condemned as a danger to society.

That's what (conventional) doctors represent day: A clear and present danger to the health and safety of the American people, precisely because they are arrogant, ignorant and function as little more than vaccine pimps and pharmaceutical pill pushers with total disregard for human health and quality of life. The sooner they are replaced with AI, the safer the public will be.

No profession kills more Americans every year than allopathic doctors. Yet their repeated homicide is state-sanctioned by state medical boards, which are universally infiltrated and run by Big Pharma proxy agents who make sure that only toxic, deadly vaccines, pharmaceuticals and chemotherapy are "recognized" as medicine. Any doctor who steps outside these boundaries is stripped of their license. This is how the medical racket is protected. It is a crime mafia that protects the medical industrial complex for profit, at the expense of human health and fundamental human dignity.

Conventional allopathic doctors have no idea how obsolete they are. They will be among the new jobless over the next 5 years due to AI advancements and medical decentralization... and still burdened with med school loan debt, for many of them.

Perhaps they can become plumbers. Plumbing jobs will remain in-demand for a decade or more, as plumbing tasks are difficult to automate.

The same doctors that were trying to clog your arteries with vaccines and pharmaceuticals, in other words, might one day have the job of un-clogging your toilet!

... and in that role, they would provide something actually valuable to society!

Allopathic doctors would strongly prefer that all voices of reason and intelligence on this platform were censored like the way Jack Dorsey used to censor everyone, because then the child-mutilating doctors wouldn't have to defend themselves against the reality that they harm people. They prefer censorship, not speech. And they demand obedience and ignorance from their own patients, rather than knowledge and personal empowerment. Allopathic doctors are predators, not healers, and their entire profession can only exist in an ecosystem of mass censorship, government monopoly protection (via state medical boards) and regulatory destructive of competition (such as the FDA attacking nutritional supplement companies). The entire industry of western allopathic medicine, it turns out, is a racket, and those who practice it are racketeers (in addition to being child mutilators).

Even if you trust the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza, which reports a total of nearly 70,000 people being killed there since October 7, 2023, understand that according to rigorous scientific analysis, U.S. doctors have killed as many as 500,000+ Americans in that same time period. SOURCE: PubMed, "Your Health Care May Kill You: Medical Errors" by James G Anderson and Kathleen Abrahamson.

https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/28186008/

For every bomb dropped on Gaza, U.S. doctors are killing about SEVEN TIMES as many people in the USA, with vaccines, chemotherapy, botched surgeries, deadly prescription drugs and other interventions that often have no basis whatsoever in safety or efficacy.

In Gaza, the IDF bombs hospitals, but in the USA, state-licensed doctors carpet bomb patients with deadly chemicals, killing them just the same. Quietly. Covertly. No big explosions. No news coverage. Just lucrative kickbacks from Big Pharma while state medical boards rubber stamp their repeated homicides.

If what's happening Gaza is a crime against humanity, what do you call the failed medical system and its mass medical homicide in America?

Of all the people close to you -- your spouse, your co-workers, your neighbors, your family members and friends -- the person statistically most likely to kill you is YOUR DOCTOR, according to U.S. government numbers.

According to 2023 Bureau of Justice crime statistics (https://bjs.ojp.gov/document/hvus23.pdf) based on the 19,800 total homicides recorded that year, and also based on published studies on doctor-caused deaths (PubMed, "Your Health Care May Kill You: Medical Errors" by James G Anderson and Kathleen Abrahamson), here's the truth about the risk of harm that doctors pose to society:

- Your doctor is 101 times more likely to kill you than your spouse.

- Your doctor is 94 times more likely to kill you than a non-spouse family member.

- Your doctor is 66 times more likely to kill you than a total stranger!

The faster you get far away from your doctor, the safer you'll be, and your risk of death will plunge dramatically. That's because, of course, doctors claim to "treat" you with things that actually kill you: Vaccines, prescription pharmaceuticals, chemotherapy, risky but ineffective surgeries, and so on.

In fact, across all professions in America over the last century, no profession has killed more Americans than doctors.

If all conventional medical doctors were teleported to another planet tomorrow, the number of human deaths on planet Earth would sharply drop the very next day and would stay lower as long as the doctors stayed off-planet. This is an irrefutable fact based on published studies and government homicide statistics.

"The value of human cognitive labor will probably turn negative." - Emad Mostaque of Stability AI.

He's reiterating exactly what myself and others have said repeatedly this year, and it especially applies to doctors.

Doctors right now contribute NEGATIVE IQ to most medical diagnoses and problem solving situations. They produce worse outcomes than AI alone, as repeatedly proven through multiple published studies, including the now-famous Harvard-MIT study on radiologists.

Doctors make so many mistakes that according to published studies (for example: PubMed, "Your Health Care May Kill You: Medical Errors" by James G Anderson and Kathleen), doctors right now kill up to 250,000 Americans each year. Globally, according to the WHO, that number is 3 million people each year. That's equivalent to a "Medical Holocaust" every 2 years.

By replacing human doctors, AI will save lives and dramatically improve patient outcomes. That's because in any hospital room, the most dangerous person in the room is the doctor himself (or herself). By removing human doctors and replacing them with AI, not only will health care costs dramatically fall, but patient outcomes and survival rates will dramatically improve.

My own AI engine at BrightU.ai already knows more about health, nutrition, medicine and physiology than any human doctor living today (or who EVER lived). Soon, I'll be releasing a new feature that offers diagnostic research based on a person's symptoms or bloodwork, and there's no question this free AI engine will be far superior to human doctors and will be used by millions of people around the world to get BETTER conclusion than what their human doctor could produce. (I'm calling the feature "Better Than A Doctor.")

Even better, AI engines aren't arrogant pricks who berate you for doing your own research, unlike human doctors who are self-righteous authoritarians who despise knowledge and freedom of speech. Doctors hate knowledge and demand ignorance of their patients, as they are threatened by people who conduct their own research and who take control over their own health outcomes, cutting doctors out of the loop and reducing their repeat business profits.

The sooner we fire the human doctors and replace them with AI, the better off we'll be. And you're going to start seeing this accelerating throughout 2026.

No profession in America kills more Americans than allopathic doctors. Not even serial killers, rapists, burglars or wartime soldiers. Up to 250,000 Americans a year are killed by doctors, according to published studies, yet they arrogantly swagger onto this platform and claim to be your medical overlords who must be obeyed. The correct reply to any such "doctor" is simply: Go pound sand. Stop mutilating children. Stop harming people. Stop killing your patients. Stop being an evil person who pimps vaccines and toxic pharmaceuticals. Put them all in their place, and remind them that they are evil creatures who contribute nothing but pain, suffering and mass death to society.
